

To: Group Insurance plan members

Subject: Fraud prevention

Protect your group insurance plan against fraud

Fraud is not a victimless crime. In fact, defrauding your group insurance plan can have serious consequences for you, your coworkers, your employer and your plan. Did you know that you are a key player in preventing fraud?

To better understand and play your role in preventing fraud, please consult the document below “Better understanding and preventing insurance fraud”.

You will learn:

- How to recognize group insurance fraud
- The consequences of group insurance fraud
- Good behaviours to adopt

To continue to benefit from the many advantages of your group insurance plan, it is essential that you help protect it against fraud.

Click on the image below to consult the document on fraud:

You can also find this document, at any time, at ia.ca/individuals/insurance/my-group-insurance/report-insurance-fraud.