Coordination of Benefits

Coordination of Benefits

This guide provides case-by-case instructions on how to submit claims if you and/or your spouse are both covered by a group health and/or dental plan through your employer, a union, association or other organization that provides Coordination of Benefits (COB).

Coordination of Benefits can help you and your family members receive the maximum eligible benefit from both policies. Payment of benefits is based upon the calculation rules specified by the Canadian Life and Health Insurance Association (CLHIA).

If you need further assistance regarding Coordination of Benefits, please contact your plan administrator.

Sample calculation of your claim benefit

Example:

$250 claim

FIRST PLAN

The first plan will reimburse the claim according to the specifications of your group insurance coverage. This means that it will apply any deductible, reimbursement percentage and any maximum based on the coverage of the plan.

Expenses submitted	Eligible expenses*	Deductible	Reimbursement percentage	Calculation	Your reimbursement from the first plan
$250	$220	$50	80%	$($220 - $50) \times 80\%$	$136

SECOND PLAN

The second plan will pay the lesser of the following two amounts:

- A) Amount that would have been payable according to the specifications of the second plan if it had been the first plan; or
- B) 100% of the eligible expenses minus the benefits paid by the first plan.

Expenses submitted	Eligible expenses*	Deductible	Reimbursement percentage	Calculation	Your reimbursement from the second plan
$250	$230	$0	90%	The lesser of: A. $($230 - $0) \times 90\% = $207$ B. $($230 - $136) = $94$	$94

TOTAL AMOUNT REIMBURSED BY BOTH PLANS

Reimbursement from the first plan	Reimbursement from the second plan	Calculation	Your reimbursement from both plans
$136	$94	$$136 + \94	$230

* The eligible expenses take into account each plan specifications. They do not always match the submitted expenses.

The total reimbursement from both plans doesn't necessarily equal the total expenses submitted, and it cannot exceed 100%.
