

COMMUNIQUÉ

To Group Insurance plan administrators
Plan management

Travel assistance | Carefree travel for your employees

The World Tourism Organization \(UN Tourism\) expects 2024 to be the year that global travel returns to pre-pandemic levels—if not surpassing them entirely. And recent international tensions won't change a thing; the number of people travelling around the globe is on the rise and Canadians are no exception.

Planning a holiday?

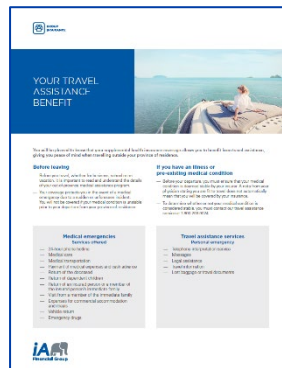

We're here to support you with coverage that lets you travel with peace of mind.

Coverage for tranquil travels

With supplemental health insurance, your members gain access to the travel assistance benefit when travelling outside their province. Thanks to this benefit, they can vacation with peace of mind and make the most of their trip.

New document outlining the travel assistance benefit

We've prepared a communication for your members containing a short document that provides valuable advice and an overview of the main features of the travel assistance benefit. This document is the key to good trip planning, especially for those who suffer from an illness or whose health status is unstable.

We provide flexible, intuitive and easy-to-manage solutions to create value and support your diverse needs.

You, as the plan administrator, have an important role to play in informing your plan members about their group insurance plan. We also look to your support to give them all explanatory and administrative documents upon enrolment or upon request. We will help you show them where they can consult this documentation if it is not available in hard copy. If you have any questions, please feel free to consult your administrator's guide or to contact your local Account Executive or Client Relationship Manager.

This communiqué and past publications are also available on our website ia.ca.