

Louis-Philippe Pouliot

Executive Vice-President
Group Benefits and Retirement Solutions
iA Financial Group

Since 2024, Louis-Philippe Pouliot has served as Executive Vice-President, Group Benefits and Retirement Solutions. In this role, he leads the business segment and contributes to its growth and positioning as an innovative player in the Canadian group benefits market. He is also a member of iA Financial Group's Executive Committee.

Since joining iA in 2008, Louis-Philippe has held several increasingly senior positions across various business segments in both Canada and the United States. This experience has enabled him to develop extensive expertise in leadership, organizational transformation and strategic growth.

He played a key role in integrating iA Financial Group's first major acquisition in the United States and actively contributed to establishing the Lean culture within the organization.

Louis-Philippe strongly believes in iA Financial Group's social mission and its ability to sustainably support the mental, social, physical and financial wellbeing of millions of Canadians.

An actuary by training, Louis-Philippe holds a Bachelor of Applied Science in Actuarial Science from Université Laval. He is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries and the Canadian Institute of Actuaries.

