2024 tax return | Practical list of all your medical and dental expenses

Like every year, we have made available to you a list of all medical and dental expenses incurred by you during the previous year in My Client Space and iA Mobile.

A single, practical list of all expenses

The list of medical and dental expenses covers all expenses incurred by you in 2024 for yourself and your dependents. So, no more need for calculators or receipts when filling out your tax return: each claim is presented in detail—amount submitted, paid and excluded—for each person covered. This makes the onerous task of producing your tax return a whole lot easier!
