

Time to start thinking about your taxes...

Thinking about your taxes and getting ready to file your tax return involves gathering all the documents you need first—a necessary but somewhat daunting task.

Our list of expenses will make your task easier

At the start of each year, we post a list in My Client Space and iA Mobile of all medical and dental expenses that you claimed in the previous year:

- My Client Space: In the Documents section of the Overview, under 2025 Tax return
- iA Mobile: In the Documents section of the homepage, under Expense list – Tax return

The list gives you a summary of your medical and dental expenses without the effort of searching for all your receipts, making it easier to file your tax return*. One less headache for you!

Don't forget to make use of it to file your 2025 tax return!

Deadline for filing your tax return and paying any taxes owing: April 30

If you owe tax, make sure you pay it by the deadline so you don't incur interest and penalties.

*Only the portion of your expenses that was not reimbursed by your group insurance plan is eligible for a tax credit.
