You are better protected in a group

At MRa, we already see to the well-being of tens of thousands of Canadians, members of various professional associations, federations and corporations. They benefit from sound individual insurance, at an attractive price and adapted to their needs. Why don't you benefit as well?

The Privilege Association program has full coverage that includes:

- Disability insurance
- Life insurance
- Dental insurance
- Supplemental accident and health insurance including travel insurance

Vision care

Alternative medicine

Hospitalizations

Laboratory costs

Enjoy a range of benefits

Be covered in the event of disability

What would happen if an accident or illness kept you from working for a year, two years, or even the rest of your life? How would you pay living expenses (groceries, mortgage or rent, electricity, etc.)? Instead of dealing with unexpected costs, pay a monthly premium and enjoy peace of mind. By covering your regular income, our disability insurance will help you maintain your quality of life and that of your loved ones.

You'll also have access to a telemedicine service that lets you talk to health professionals in real time without having to go to a clinic

Guaranteed contract renewal until age 65

The insurer cannot terminate your policy before age 65 as long as you pay your premiums (excluding disability, loan and travel insurance, which are cancelled when you retire or voluntarily cease gainful employment for reasons other than accident or illness).

Disability insurance

Up to $15,000 a month

When you sign up for Privilege Association Program, you can rest easy knowing that if you become totally disabled you will receive thousands of dollars a year based on your actual income—in most cases 100% tax-free! Give yourself peace of mind!

Eligibility

Eligibility: self-employed workers, business owners, members of an association recognized by MRa, partners and their permanent employees under age 63, who fulfil the conditions of insurability.

Waiting period

Option	Waiting period
30 days, 60 days or 90 days	From your first day of disability if you have day surgery or are hospitalized more than 18 hours (otherwise, you are compensated from the date the selected waiting period expires)
30 days +, 60 days + or 90 days +	From your first day of disability if you have an accident, have day surgery or are hospitalized more than 18 hours (otherwise, you are compensated from the date the selected waiting period expires)
112 days	From the date the selected waiting period expires

You can also accumulate non-consecutive disability days for 6 months in blocks of at least 5 days in order to complete the selected waiting period.

Benefit period

According to your choice, the monthly benefit is payable for total disability resulting from an accident or illness for a period of 5 years or until age 65 (or until age 70 as an option for category 4A only).

Available amounts

The benefits are payable on a monthly basis and are available per unit of $100 varying from $500 to $15,000 per month according to the category of occupation.

Categories of occupation	Description
Category 4A	Any person holding a university bachelor's degree or member of a professional association recognized by the office of professions of the principal insured's province of residence, actually practicing their profession and not doing any physical labour.
Category 3A	Any person with a postsecondary degree and not doing any physical labour.
Category 2A	Any person doing less than 20% physical labour.
Category 1A	Any person doing more than 20% physical labour in industries or trades which do not have a high accident risk.
Category B	Any person doing more than 20% physical labour in industries or trades with high accident risks.
Category C	Any person doing more than 20% physical labour in industries with high accident or illness risks, or anyone practicing trades with high accident or illness risks.

Definitions of disability	Disability is an inability caused by an accident or illness which, during the waiting period and, subsequently, for the first 24 or 60 months or until age 65 (or until age 70 as an option for category 4A only), according to the option chosen by the policyholder, prevents the policyholder from performing the regular duties of their occupation. Subsequently, it must be an inability which prevents the policyholder from performing the duties of any occupation for which they are qualified through education or experience.
Residual disability	When, after a period of total disability which began before age 60 and which gave right to benefits during a period at least equal to the waiting period selected, the policyholder returns to work and suffers a reduction of more than 20% in their professional income because of their disability, the residual disability benefit will be payable: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– for a maximum period of 60 months for category 3A and 4A policyholders;</li> <li>– for a maximum period of 24 months for category 1A and 2A policyholders;</li> <li>– for a maximum period of 12 months for category B and C policyholders.</li> </ul> The residual disability benefit is based on a percentage of the monthly pension which is equal to the ratio of lost income up to 50% of the total disability benefit.
Waiver	Your plan includes a premium waiver clause under which you are exempt from any premium payment that becomes due following a period of total and continuous disability exceeding 3 months and having started before age 60. In addition, these 3 months of premiums will be refunded.
Integration	No integration during a maximum period of 24 months without exceeding age 60 and up to a maximum of $2,000 per month ($1,200 for categories C and B). Otherwise, disability benefits are integrated with benefits payable or that would be payable as a result of disability under any insurance contract or government plan, so that the total benefits payable do not exceed 100% of the annual income the insured was receiving prior to disability. Benefits from any government plan (QPP/CPP, SAAQ, CNESST/WSIB, etc.) are integrated so that the insured retains at least 50% of the monthly benefit paid.
Automatic increase in benefits	If you are an active insured and you are under age 55, you benefit from an automatic increase in disability insurance benefits, without evidence of insurability. This increase is made annually according to the Consumer Price Index (CPI) as published by Statistics Canada, to a maximum of $500 per month. This coverage is offered at no additional charge and must not be interrupted for more than 2 consecutive years.
Disability insurance coverage options	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– Return of premiums benefit: If you have not used your coverage, the eligible premiums will be returned to you in full at age 65 (sometimes even before) if you enrolled before age 50 or at 50% if you were between age 50 and 54 when you enrolled in this option.</li> <li>– Indexation of benefits: After 12 months of benefit payments, these payments are increased according to the Consumer Price Index (CPI) as published by Statistics Canada, subject to an annual maximum of 5%.</li> <li>– Partial disability: This coverage provides a monthly benefit when you are partially disabled.</li> <li>– Financial protections group: You can select these three additional coverage options which are RRSP insurance, enhancement of the integration option and the guaranteed benefit.</li> <li>– TFSA insurance: After 12 months of total disability for any gainful employment, an additional benefit is paid into a tax free savings account (TFSA).</li> </ul>

Life insurance

Protect yourself and your loved ones in case of death!

You can get
up to $1,000,000
in coverage for yourself

up to $500,000

Optional coverage

Overhead expenses insurance

Protect your company in case of disability!

Benefit

This coverage provides for the payment of a monthly benefit whose goal is to cover normal office expenses if you are totally disabled following an accident or illness. The benefit is payable starting from the end of the waiting period and for a maximum period of 24 months, without exceeding age 65.

Eligibility

This coverage is offered to self-employed workers, business owners or partners under age 63, who operate a business with 10 employees or less, who regularly perform the duties of their occupation and who fulfil the conditions of insurability.

Coverage

Overhead expenses are covered at 100% if you are disabled, up to the amount purchased and without exceeding the average monthly expenses incurred in the 6 months preceding the disability.

Covered expenses

- Rent, electricity, heating, telephone, accounting services
- Employee salaries for businesses with 5 employees and less
- Expenses for equipment or a vehicle essential to the execution of the work
- The periodic repayment of any loan contracted for the purposes of operating your business and other usual fixed expenses for professional purposes

BUT are notably excluded:

- The salary of the insured or any other member of their profession
- The cost of general office and business supplies
- Fees for maintaining or cleaning equipment or a vehicle

Automatic increase in benefits

If you are an active insured and you are under age 55, you benefit from an automatic increase in general expenses insurance benefits, without evidence of insurability. This increase is made annually according to the Consumer Price Index (CPI) as published by Statistics Canada, to a maximum of $500 annually. This coverage is offered at no additional charge and must not be interrupted for more than 2 consecutive years.

Available amounts

The benefits are payable per unit of $100 varying from $500 to $15,000 per month according to the category of occupation.

Note

The premiums for this coverage are tax deductible as a business expense.

Waiver

Your plan includes a premium waiver clause under which you are exempt from any premium payment that becomes due following a period of total and continuous disability exceeding 3 months and having started before age 60. In addition, these 3 months of premiums will be refunded.

Optional coverage

You can sign up for the following options too if you wish:

- Loan insurance
- Critical illness coverage
- Cancer coverage
- Accidental fracture

Loan insurance

In the event of disability, this coverage lets you make monthly loan payments (personal or commercial mortgage, line of credit, car or recreational vehicle loan, personal or corporate loan, credit card, etc.).

Available amounts

Benefits are available in $50 increments from $500 to $5,000 per month depending on the type of loan.

Cancer coverage

This coverage includes a prevention component under which the insurer could pay you a benefit equal to 50% of the face amount, up to a maximum of $25,000.

Accidental fracture

You can sign up for accidental fracture coverage for one or two units of $5,000 whereby the insurer could pay you an amount ranging from $500 to $5,000 depending on the type of fracture.

Critical illness coverage

With this coverage, if you are diagnosed with a covered illness, after a period of at least 30 days, you receive the full face amount selected. Two types of coverage are available:

- Simplified coverage for six critical illnesses: stroke, cancer (with risk of death in the short term), heart surgery, heart attack, paralysis (after a period of 90 days) and coma
- Full coverage for 25 critical illnesses

Your spouse is also eligible for coverage.

Premiums and available amounts

Benefits are available in $1,000 increments from $20,000 to $200,000. You can also choose a level premium until age 65 or a regular premium by age bracket.

* Except for cases with reduced evidence of insurability, the effective date for dental care coverage is the first day of the month following the insurer’s acceptance of your insurance application. If you wish to sign up for dental coverage later on, this coverage will begin after a period of three months following the acceptance of your application. An insured who cancels their dental coverage or requests a change to a dental plan offering more extensive coverage than the one initially selected (e.g., from optional to preferred coverage) may no longer reinstate it at a later date, and the three-month waiting period applies.

Benefits for retirees and semi-retirees

Accident-health and AD&D insurance

Eligibility, for retirees and semi-retirees age 55 and older

Retired and semi-retired policyholders age 55 and older are automatically eligible for accident-health insurance coverage which is mostly identical to that held before retirement, as well as accidental death or dismemberment insurance coverage included in the supplemental health insurance coverage.

Automatic termination

The supplemental health insurance coverage automatically terminates at age 90 (the policyholder's accidental death and dismemberment portion included in this coverage terminates at 75 and if it is purchased, the travel insurance portion offered as an option to this coverage terminates at age 80).

Travel insurance

Travel insurance and international assistance for retirees and semi-retirees

Retired and semi-retired insureds age 55 and over now have the possibility of purchasing optional travel insurance and travel cancellation insurance coverage for trips not exceeding 30 days, 60 days or 90 days according to the option chosen.

Special benefits

Renewal

The insurer cannot terminate a person's contract before age 65 (or age 70 if this disability insurance option was chosen) as long as this person pays their premium, with the exception of disability insurance, overhead expenses insurance, loan insurance and travel insurance, when the insured is retired or has voluntarily ceased performing the duties of an income-generating activity for reasons other than an accident or illness. The present benefit does not apply when the insured has purchased various coverage options for retirees.

Stability

The customized Privilege Association program guarantees you unparalleled stability by using the purchasing power of all members, member partners and their permanent employees.

Rates

The premium required at purchase is based on the attained age, smoking or non-smoking status, waiting period and amount of insurance. The renewal premiums can be adjusted according to the results and when the insured switches from one age category to another.

Coverage

Your program protects you 24 hours a day, at work, at home or when practicing sporting activities, anywhere in the world.

Particulars

- Specialized and competent insurers
- A range of services including claims, all local
- Incomparable benefits that are exclusive to your professional activities

The contract in its entirety does not apply if one of the insured persons becomes an active member of the armed forces of any country.

General exclusions

(applicable to all coverages except life insurance, cancer and critical illness, for which we refer you to their specific exclusions)

The contract does not apply if the loss suffered is a direct or indirect result of one of the following causes:

- a) Suicide or attempted suicide and self-inflicted injury, whether or not the insured is of sound mind
- b) Injury sustained as a result of active participation in a riot, demonstration or hostilities or injury sustained during a war, whether declared or not
- c) Commission or attempted commission of a criminal act or hybrid offence by the insured
- d) Operation of a motor vehicle while the insured's blood alcohol concentration exceeds the legal limit or when the insured is under the influence of drugs or medication not taken in accordance with a medical prescription or the dosage recommended by the manufacturer
- e) Participation in a flight or attempted flight when the insured is on board for any reason other than as a passenger
- f) Pregnancy, delivery or miscarriage

Disability insurance

In addition to the general exclusions, no benefits are payable if the disability in question is related, directly or indirectly, to treatment undergone for cosmetic purposes.

Overhead expenses insurance

In addition to the general exclusions, no benefits are payable if the disability in question is related, directly or indirectly to treatment undergone for cosmetic purposes. Any period of total incapacity for work during which, as a result of the sale or transfer of his business, the member or their associates no longer incur overhead expenses.

Life insurance

Under the insured's life insurance plan, suicide is covered 12 months after your life insurance takes effect or is reinstated. The same 12-month period applies to any addition or increase in life insurance coverage, but in this case, it applies only to the portion covered by the addition or increase.

Accidental death and dismemberment

In addition to the general exclusions, benefits are not payable following: voluntary poisoning or intoxication, loss caused by natural death or death of the insured occurring more than 90 days after the date of accidental bodily injury.

Supplemental accident and sickness, loan, critical illness, cancer, accidental fracture and dental care insurance

You will find the precise text regarding exclusions and limitations in your contract. It is important to read it carefully.
